Piper Alderman and you…

a partnership in the making.

Piper Alderman’s message is simple - we’ll give you interesting legal work that will challenge your way of thinking and your understanding of the law. In return you will give us your dedication and intellect.

Together we will create an excellent lawyer who is commercially savvy, innovative and client focused.

Complement your studies with a casual law clerk position that provides exposure to industry leading Partners and lawyers. Our law clerk positions are generally for two days per week on an ongoing basis throughout the year and fit around your study commitments.

Our Melbourne office is looking to recruit penultimate or final year students to work in our Corporate/Commercial, Dispute Resolution, Employment Relations and Construction practices.

Applications open on Tuesday, 2 March 2010 and close on Wednesday, 17 March 2010 and must be submitted via CVMail at www.cvmail.com.au. Interviews will take place in March with positions commencing in April.
