AMUNC 2010
The 16th Asia-Pacific Model United Nations Conference
JULY 11-16, UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

AMUNC is more than a conference.
It’s a global community.

When you register as an AMUNC delegate you join a network of more than five hundred students from all over the Asia-Pacific: a network with a shared commitment to peace, human rights and sustainable development. As an AMUNC delegate you have the opportunity to represent a nation, discover new global paradigms and create international contacts and friendships to last a lifetime.

From the security implications of climate change to state responsibility for genocide, AMUNC delegates will engage with some of the most pressing issues facing our world today. At AMUNC 2010 delegates can choose from 17 dynamic committees, including three 2010 innovations: UNICEF, International Criminal Court (ICC) and the ASEAN Regional Forum. Budding reporters can sign up to join our International Press Gallery (IPG), while our new program “Diplomatic Discussions” will seek to narrow the gap between the idealistic world of MUN and real life diplomacy through face to face discussions with distinguished consular officials and academic experts.

Yet AMUNC is not just about debates and diplomacy. From a breathtaking night cruise in Sydney Harbour to a lavish finale ball, delegates can also look forward to a spectacular social program which will showcase all that Sydney has to offer.

Eligibility: Open to any student currently enrolled in a tertiary institution
