Invitation – Book Launch:

Non-Adversarial Justice 2nd edition

The Australian Centre for Justice Innovation (ACJI) at Monash University presents the launch of Non-Adversarial Justice 2nd edition by Michael King, Arie Freiberg, Becky Batagol and Ross Hyams.

Non-Adversarial Justice explores key aspects of the use of non-adversarial practices in the Australian justice system with reference to similar developments in the United States, Canada, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.

This second edition of the much-lauded text explores recent developments in non-adversarial justice, which have seen the expansion of therapeutic jurisprudence into new areas of the law and changes in judicial practices, the expanding use of restorative justice and the waxing and waning of problem-oriented courts across Australia. It also provides up-to-date information about the increasing number of evaluations of non-adversarial programs and the changing nature of legal and professional education in the light of these new theories and practices.
