16 March 2016

Professor Bryan Horrigan
Dean Faculty of Law
Monash University VIC 3800
CLAYTON CAMPUS

Dear Staff and Students of Monash University,

RE: REQUEST FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Editorial Board of the International Trade and Business Law Review (‘the Review) are now inviting submissions for Volume XX of the Review. The Review publishes leading articles consisting of original research, case notes, comments, and book reviews concerning international trade and business law, arbitration law and comparative law.

The Review endeavours to provide the legal and business communities with information reflecting recent developments in the aforementioned areas; contributing to the scholarly discussion of these developments, whilst being informative and of practical relevance to scholars and professionals alike. The Review has a commendable reputation, having previously published articles by a number of eminent scholars, including Justice of the High Court of Australia, the Hon Susan Kiefel AC.

The Review is edited by Professor Gabriël A Moens, foundation Professor of Law at Curtin University School of Law in Perth, Australia in collaboration with the Student Editorial Board. In addition, the Review is an internationally refereed journal and is supervised by an international board of editors consisting of leading international trade law practitioners and academics from the European Union, the United States, Asia and Australia.

Submissions for Volume XX close on 1 July 2016. Please submit articles by email attachment in .doc format to tracy.albin@student.curtin.edu.au. All submissions must comply with the latest edition of the Australian Guide to Legal Citation. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact myself at the above address.

Yours faithfully,

[Signature]

Tracy Albin
Editor
International Trade and Business Law Review
Curtin University of Technology
BENTLEY WA 6102