

Getting A Job In The Legal Profession In Australia

An Event For International Law Students and Recently Admitted International Lawyers

Leo Cussen Institute invites international law students and international lawyers admitted to practice in Australia from 2007/onwards date to an informal networking event.

Two recently admitted lawyers (international) will speak of their path to employment and there will be time for guests to share their experiences – good and bad - in finding legal employment and to discuss practical ways to meet the challenges involved in finding employment in the legal profession in Australia.

DATE: Wednesday 9 December 2009

TIME: 5.30pm to 7pm

VENUE: Level One, 360 Little Bourke Street Melbourne (Leo Cussen Institute)

RSVP: Sophie Lambrou
slambrou@leocussen.vic.edu.au

by Tuesday 8 December 2009

The evening will be facilitated by Judith Dickson, Director, Practical Training Course at Leo Cussen Institute.

