

Expressions of interest for Monash mooting teams

The intervarsity mooting competition season is fast approaching.

The Monash law faculty is seeking to improve the co-ordination and support of students who wish to represent Monash in one of these competitions.

If you have any interest in any of the following competitions, please email me at adam.mcbeth@monash.edu before 1st May. Further information will then be provided about the selection process and deadlines, depending on which competition(s) you are interested in.

Competition	When?	Where?	Monash teams
Castan Centre Human Rights Moot	July	Melbourne	2 teams of 3
Shine Torts Moot	August	Brisbane	1 team of 2-4
National Environmental Law Moot	September	Melbourne	2 teams of 2-3
National Intersvarsity Women's Moot	September	Sydney	1 team of 2-3 women
Administrative Appeals Tribunal Moot	October	Melbourne	3 teams of 2-3
Gibbs Constitutional Law Moot	October	Canberra	2 teams of 2-3
Michael Kirby Contract Moot	October	Melbourne	2 teams of 2-4

In addition to these local competitions, there are many international competitions. If you are interested in finding out about international competitions and possibly representing Monash, please email me. (But note that you will need to pay your own travel expenses.) Likewise, if you are interested in participating in a competition that is not on the list above, please let me know.

Finally please note that this process is separate to the faculty's main international mooting experiences: The Jessup International Law Moot and the Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. Information about how to apply for those teams will be distributed in the coming months.

Happy Mooting!

Associate Professor Adam McBeth

Convenor of Mooting and Advocacy, Monash Law Faculty
