

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Studio Ubertazzi, corso di Porta Ticinese, Milan, Italy

Studio Ubertazzi would like to welcome applications from English speaking law students for internship positions of a three-month duration beginning in September 2013.

Studio Ubertazzi has a long established tradition of excellence in the practice of law and in providing individualised client services. The firm also has a high degree of specialisation at the academic level, and houses a library with more than 4,000 texts and 100 law journals. Located in central Milan, the boutique firm has developed a solid portfolio of national and international clients, especially in the fields of intellectual property law and competition law (trademarks, patents, copyright, advertising, unfair competition, antitrust), commercial law (including banking and bankruptcy law); and general private law with a particular focus on international and EU law. Studio Ubertazzi is based in Milan but has the support of an international network of leading firms as well as alliances with many Italian and international law firms. A number of its lawyers play an important role in the work of several international organisations, including AIPPI, WIPO and UNESCO.

Interns are encouraged to participate in the day-to-day activities of the firm, including: conducting legal and academic research; writing, editing and reviewing academic articles; translating legal documents; assisting the partners in legal work; dealing with English speaking clients; and participating in academic events and conferences hosted and attended by members of the firm.

Unfortunately due to budget constraints, Studio Ubertazzi is unable to offer a stipend for the duration of the internship. However, the firm is happy to offer its interns accommodation on-site, with a private bedroom and bathroom, and access to a kitchen. The firm is located on one of the most popular streets in Milan, boasting many bars, shops and restaurants.

Applicants are invited to submit their CV along with a cover letter and appropriate letters of recommendation to: info@ubertazzi.it

We look forward to receiving your applications!
