

Southern Cross University invites you to...

The 20th Anniversary of the School of Law and Justice and the 7th Michael Kirby Lecture

You are cordially invited to celebrate with us the 20th Anniversary of the School of Law and Justice, event details below. We encourage you to forward this invitation to other interested SCU School of Law and Justice alumni or members of the public.

Event Details

Seventh Michael Kirby Lecture:

- When: 6pm, Friday 11 October 2013
Venue: Whitebrook Theatre, Lismore SCU campus
Speaker: Professor Megan Davis
Director, Indigenous Law Centre, University of New South Wales.
Topic: Indigenous Australians and the Constitutional Project: The Politics of Discrimination, and Why "Recognition" is not Enough.
Cost: Free
-

20th Anniversary Dinner:

When: 7.30pm, Friday 11 October 2013
Venue: Zest Function Room, Lismore SCU campus
Speakers: The Hon Michael Kirby AC CMG and
His Honour Magistrate David Heilpern
MCs: Richard Harris and Kate Lavender
Cost: $90 ($75 Current students)

RSVP and Dinner payments:

Dinner RSVP and payments

Please RSVP by 27 September 2013

Please Note: This event may be recorded and published. Should you have any objections to the use of your image, please contact lawevents@scu.edu.au prior to attending the event.

Connect with Us

It's all about U
scu.edu.au

