

APPOINTMENT OF JUDICAL CLERK (TIPSTAFF)

TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Applications are invited for the position of Judicial Clerk to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, the Honourable T F Bathurst.

Position description

The appointment will commence in late January 2015. Applicants are expected to continue on the staff of the Chief Justice for the year 2016 in the position of Research Director. Salaries in the 2013-2014 financial year were $53,062 p.a. for the Judicial Clerk position and $92,940 p.a. for the Research Director position. The salaries for the 2014-2015 financial year are yet to be determined.

The primary role of Judicial Clerk is assisting the Chief Justice with legal research. The Judicial Clerk also performs a range of court-related duties in Chambers, as well as spending a substantial amount of time in court. In the second year of appointment the tasks to be performed are almost entirely research based, including assistance drafting academic papers and speeches, with less frequent attendance in court.

Applications

Applicants must have a distinction average or higher, and must expect to complete their law degree by the end of 2014.

Applications, in hard copy, should contain a covering letter, full curriculum vitae and original academic transcript. Applications should also contain two written references.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis and will close once the position has been filled. Positions are highly competitive and interested students are advised to apply as soon as possible.

Applications should be sent to:

Ms V Bradshaw
Associate to the Chief Justice
