

Australian Government
Department of Social Services

Department of Social Services 2022 Ability Apprenticeship Program

Do you want to start a rewarding career in the Australian Public Service?

Would you like the opportunity to play a role in helping improve the wellbeing of individuals and families in Australian communities?

Are you looking for a supportive working arrangement?

About the Ability Apprenticeship Program:

- the program commences in March/April 2022 for a duration of 12 months
- a rewarding introduction to working in government and being part of the Australian Government's social policy agenda
- starting salary of $63,719 per annum (pro rata part-time)
- receive workplace learning and individualised flexible training, development and support options
- these positions will be located in Canberra, Sydney, Melbourne, Hobart, Perth and Adelaide
- the department will provide reasonable workplace adjustments to enable staff to perform at their full capability.

The positions in this program are specifically for people with disability

Applications close Thursday 7 October 2021

Apply online

dss.gov.au/abilityprogram

For more information

abilityprogram@dss.gov.au